Strange people, fairies, queens, Jedi's, talking pumpkins. Should we alert the neighborhood watch? No, it was just the annual Halloween invasion. A good time seemed to be had by all. Hard to believe that October is already over.

I love November as it ushers in the holiday season and sets the scene for being thankful for all we have. A great neighborhood, a wonderful free country to live in, warm homes, good food, family and friends.... the list could go on forever.

lights to go see. We will be having our Christmas light contest again this year. 1st, 2nd and 3rd place prizes to be awarded so start thinking on how to light up your house this Christmas. It's just for fun but sure makes our neighborhood pretty. Saturday, December 20th will be the night.

We still need someone to come on board as the Vice president of the association. It only takes a 1 hour meeting once a month. Please let us know if you can help. Don't be like the poem where Everyone believes that Someone should do the job but No one wants to be that Someone.

Hope you have a blessed November and a Happy Thanksgiving.

December then brings all the beautiful

WP Resident Chairs Parks Referendum Committee

WP on Yahoo

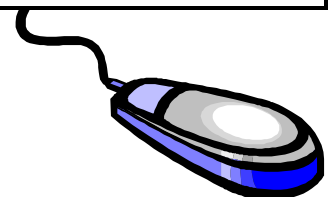

–By Sara Burchard

I created a Yahoo group for Waverly Park neighbors! I think it will be a great way to get to know our neighbors and also to be able to keep up with activities in the neighborhood!

Check it out at:

Sunshine Committee

Sunshine is something we all like to see and feel. It brightens our day and warms our spirits. Just as natural sunshine does this in our lives, your Sunshine Committee wants to function in the same way.

We want to welcome the new neighbors and new babies, give out congratulations on exciting events and help out in time of sorrow, surgery or illness.

We need your help though as we might not know what is going on with your neighbors or with you.

If you know of situations that we can touch as a friendly neighborhood committee, please let us know.

The Problem of Canis Deficatus

—By Stephen Horne

Owning a dog requires a great deal of responsibility; I should know, as I own two of them. There are vet expenses and food expenses as well as grooming and boarding. We dog owners have to remember that we also have a responsibility to our neighbors. Those responsibilities are recorded for us in the neighborhood covenants. Most people abide by those covenants and that makes for good relationships between neighbors.

In my observation I have seen only one rule that is habitually broken by some people who do not understand their responsibilities. Some people do not clean up after their dogs when they are being walked. More than once I have walked to my mailbox and stepped in a 'doggie landmine' that was left in my yard. I have also observed these unsightly piles on the walking trail and playground.

When I see someone who is walking their dog and they have a bag or other device to retrieve and reclaim their dog's 'blessings' I know that they understand their responsibilities.

Please Please Please Please I do not like to clean up after my dog, but I do. I sure do not want to clean up after your dog also. Let's keep our neighbor's yards and the common area free from doggy droppings.
